

AUTO SHOW WILL BE GREAT EVENT

Sunday Tabernacle Will Give Ample Room for Elaborate Display

The automobile show which will be held at the Billy Sunday tabernacle January 18 to 21 promises to be one of the biggest events ever held in Tulsa. With the decorations already purchased and various other minor details taken care of, the dealer and accessory men are only waiting for the word to start.

Sever before has the automobile association had the space to put on the show that has been obtained this year. With a complete and well finished floor over the entire tabernacle and an extra large dance floor there will be no crowding of cars and visitors, as has been the experience at various shows. The main aisles are about 15 feet wide and all side aisles are 8 feet in width. A big feature of the show will be the decorations.

A great deal of work is being put in on the plans for the floral parade which will be held in conjunction with the show. This event is open to every car owner in the city and it is believed that the parade will be at least a mile in length. Prizes will be given by the auto dealers for the best decorated cars. First prize will be $100, second, third, and fourth prizes will be storage batteries given by the Walsh Electric company, the Willard Battery company and the Exide Battery company. An effort is being made to get the merchants to also give prizes to the parade winners.

Carnival night, which will be one of the big nights of the show, will be featured with a display of novelties. Elaborate plans are being made for this occasion and the dealers have promised it to be a winner.

Visitors day has been set for the opening night. Dealers from Oklahoma City, Okmulgee, Muskogee, Bartlesville and Fort Smith are planning to attend the show in a body that day. If hard work and faith mean anything the show this year will be the biggest and the most successful of any ever staged in the southwest, so say the dealers.

FORM ANTI KU KLUX

Anonymous Letter Warns Editor of Organization to Fight Activities of the Klan.

Special to The World.
WILSON, Dec. 3.—No longer can the city of Tulsa say that it has no opposition to the recently publicly announced existence of the organization of the Ku-Klux Klan.

For several days there have been rumors current on the streets to the effect that an Anti-Ku-Klux Klan was under way of organization, and last night at a late hour as the editor of the Daily Herald sat in his office waiting for a rain storm to pass before attempting to go home, one of the office doors was partly opened, a bare hand thrust partly in, and a letter dropped on the office floor. Immediately the anti-Klan representative disappeared in the darkness and rain before an identification could be made.

The contents of the sealed letter reads:

"FAIL YE NOT TO PUBLISH."
"From the parties who have received letters from the Ku-Klux Klan."

"We are tax payers. We do not owe anyone. We gave out money to the Red Cross, bought Liberty bonds. We help the widows and orphans; we have also given the church-see different donations. We fought and shed our blood in mud and shell-fire to make this a free country. I guess we are not Americans for that. We are not 300 strong, but we are game to the core."

"ANTI-KU-KLUX KLAN."

church member is never a soul winner and never will be."

"There was a loud and fervent 'Amen!' to this, emanating from some one sitting far back in the center section.

He Defends Himself.
Sunday took another crack at the contingent that has time and inclination for discussing his (Sunday's) financial affairs. He had been talking about the salaries that actors, prizefighters, artists—top notches in their line—get for their work.

"And then," he said, "if I get a little money I'm a damned grafter. I'd just like to know if anybody else would come here and stand up here and preach for six weeks and then take what you give me at the end of that time. Would the Chicago Grand Opera company come here, throw open the doors of Convention hall to the public, give a series of performances and then take whatever their audiences choose to give them? They would not. I'll tell you what I think—I earn what I get, and what I get is nobody's business except mine and the folks who give it to me."

Fervent applause greeted this statement.

In his championship of baseball as the cleanest American sport Sunday made the declaration that he believed Babe Ruth was doing more to hurt baseball today by his salary demands than any other man in his day.

Sunday declared the fellows played tennis for the sport and less for the money there was in it. The fighting avenger, in his discussion of prizefighters, raved on the Dempsey-Carpenter fight.

"I've got something blood enough in me," he said, "to be glad that Jack Dempsey knocked the tar out of that Frenchman, even if I am a preacher. At that, it would be a good thing if he infected a little more sports blood into religion; we would make it more attractive."

Pool halls came in for their share, too, last night. They are becoming first cousins to the saloon, he said.

The after-meeting was not in any way affected by the fact that the storm left a few seats vacant. One hundred and forty people hit the trail.

The chorus seats were occupied Saturday afternoon, something unusual for an afternoon service.

They were filled by children who, under Rodheaver's leadership, gave a special song program before the sermon.

Sunday took a vote last night as to whether he should preach this afternoon for all people or for men only. All people had it and so Sunday afternoon, instead of two separate services being held, as had been announced previously, the evangelist will preach to everybody at 2:30 A. M. Services will be held tonight as usual.

Last night was the close of the fourth week of the Sunday campaign. In those four weeks 1,325 people have hit the sawdust trail.

Arrested Negroes Tell Tales Out of School Before Police Judge

Special to The World.

BRISTOW, Dec. 3.—Some personal remarks regarding domestic relations of certain negroes near Bristow gave a touch of humor to a civil case filed in justice court a few days ago. The property involved in the case was valued at only a few dollars, but the contestants became angry and "told some tales out of school."

The suit has nothing on the fellows if what they say is true for a witness charged that defendant "keeps at least 50 women at his house all day time." An attorney asked the fellow who made the accusation if he wasn't guilty of the same thing.

"Yes, but an almighty lie, yer honor. I've just tellin' you what kind of man he is."

"Maybe I have got to be married to him, an' that's more'n he can say," was the reply of the tall dusky defendant.
